For each meeting, the provisional agenda, together with supporting documents, shall be issued in English and distributed by the secretariat to the members at least four weeks before the opening of the meeting.

Rule 19

The secretariat shall, in agreement with the Chair, include any item that is proposed by a member and has been received by the secretariat after the provisional agenda for a meeting has been produced, but before the opening of the meeting, in a supplementary provisional agenda.
Rule 20

When adopting the agenda for a meeting, the Committee may decide to add, delete, defer or amend items. Only items that are considered by the Committee to be urgent and important may be added to the agenda.

Rule 21

(b) Collect, translate as may be required under rule 40, reproduce and distribute the documents of the meeting;

(c) Distribute the official documents of the meeting;

(d) Arrange for the custody and preservation of the documents of the meeting.

VIII. Conduct of business

Rule 24

The Chair shall not declare a session of the meeting of the Committee open or permit the debate to proceed unless at least one third of the members are present. The presence of two thirds of the members shall be required for any decision to be taken.

Rule 25

1. No one may address a meeting without having previously obtained the permission of the Chair. Subject to rules 26 and 27, the Chair shall call upon speakers in the order in which they signify their desire to speak. The secretariat shall maintain a list of speakers. The Chair may call a speaker to order if the speaker’s remarks are not relevant to the subject under discussion.

2. The Committee may, on a proposal from the Chair or from any member, limit the time allowed to each speaker and the number of times each speaker may speak on a question. Before a decision is taken, two members may speak in favour of and two against a proposal to set such limits. When the debate is limited and a speaker exceeds the allotted time, the Chair shall call the speaker to order without delay.

Rule 26

During the discussion of any matter, a member may at any time raise a point of order, on which the Chair shall immediately rule in accordance with the present rules. A member may appeal against the ruling of the Chair. The appeal shall be put to the vote immediately and the ruling shall stand unless overruled by a majority of the members present and voting. A member may not, in raising a point of order, speak on the substance of the matter under discussion.
Rule 27

1. Subject to rule 26, the following motions shall have precedence in the order indicated below over all other proposals or motions:
   (a) To suspend the session;
   (b) To adjourn the session;
   (c) To adjourn the debate on the question under discussion;
   (d) To close the debate on the question under discussion.

2. Permission to speak on a motion falling under paragraphs 1 (a)–(d) of the present rule shall be granted only to the proposer and, in addition, to one speaker in favour of and two against the motion, after which the motion shall immediately be put to the vote.

IX. Voting

Rule 28

Each member shall have one vote.

Rule 29

1. The Committee shall make every effort to adopt its recommendations by consensus. If all efforts at consensus have been exhausted and no consensus is reached, such recommendations shall as a last resort be adopted by a three-fourths majority vote of the members present and voting, based on a quorum of two-thirds of the members.

2. The Committee shall make every effort to reach consensus on matters relating to the conduct of its business. If no consensus is reached, such matters shall as a last resort be decided by a majority vote of the members present and voting, based on a quorum of two-thirds of the members.

Rule 30

If two or more proposals relate to the same question, the Committee, unless it decides otherwise, shall vote on the proposals in the order in which they have been submitted. The Committee may, after each vote on a proposal, decide whether to vote on the next proposal.

Rule 31

1. Any member may request that any part of a proposal or of an amendment to a proposal be voted on separately. The Chair shall allow the request unless a member objects. If an objection is made to the request for division, the Chair shall permit two members to speak, one in favour of and the other against the request, after which the motion shall immediately be put to the vote. The Chair may limit the time allowed to each speaker.

2. If the request referred to in paragraph 1 of the present rule is allowed or adopted, those parts of a proposal or of an amendment to a proposal that are approved shall then be put to a vote as a whole. If all the operative parts of a proposal or amendment have been rejected, the proposal or amendment shall be considered to have been rejected as a whole.

Rule 32

A motion is considered to be an amendment to a proposal if it merely adds to, deletes from or revises parts of that proposal. An amendment shall be voted on before the proposal to which it relates is put to the vote, and if the amendment is adopted, the amended proposal shall then be voted on.

Rule 33

If two or more amendments to a proposal are proposed, the Committee shall first vote on the amendment furthest removed in substance from the original proposal, then on the next amendment furthest removed therefrom, and so on, until all the amendments have been put to the vote. The Chair shall determine the order of voting on the amendments under the present rule.
Rule 34
Voting, except for elections, shall normally be by show of hands. If at any time, however, a member requests a secret ballot, that shall be the method of voting on the issue in question.

Rule 35
After the Chair has announced the beginning of voting, no member shall interrupt the voting except on a point of order in connection with the actual conduct of the voting. The Chair may permit the members to explain their votes, either before or after the voting. The Chair may limit the time to be allowed for such explanations. The Chair shall not permit the proposer of a proposal or of an amendment to a proposal to explain his or her vote on his or her own proposal or amendment, except if it has been amended.

X. Elections

Rule 36
All elections shall be held by secret ballot.

Rule 37
1. If, when one person is to be elected, no candidate obtains in the first ballot a majority of the votes cast by the members present and voting, a second ballot restricted to the two candidates obtaining the largest number of votes shall be taken. If in the second ballot the votes are equally divided, the Chair shall decide between the candidates by drawing lots.

2. In the case of a tie in the first ballot among three or more candidates obtaining the largest number of votes, a second ballot shall be held. If a tie results among more than two candidates, the number shall be reduced to two by lot and the balloting, restricted to them, shall continue in accordance with the procedure set forth in paragraph 1 of the present rule.

XI. Languages

Rule 38
The working language of the Committee shall be English.

Rule 39
1. Sessions of the meetings of the Committee at which the implementation and/or compliance of a particular party is being considered shall be interpreted from an official language of the United Nations other than English into English if so requested by that party.

2. A representative of a party may speak in a language other than English if the party provides for interpretation into English.

Rule 40
1. Official documents of the meetings shall be drawn up in English.

2. Submissions from parties as per paragraph 4 (a) of article 15 of the Convention shall be made in one of the six official languages of the United Nations. When submitted in one of the official languages of the United Nations other than English, the secretariat shall make arrangements for their translation into English before their distribution.

3. The secretariat shall also make arrangements for the translation into English of national reports, or sections thereof, submitted in one of the United Nations official languages other than English, prior to their distribution, when issues are to be considered by the Committee on the basis of national reports, in accordance with paragraph 4 (b) of article 15 of the Convention, or when such national reports or sections thereof are required for the consideration of an issue on the basis of requests from the Conference of the Parties, in accordance with paragraph 4 (c) of article 15 of the Convention.
XII. Amendments to the rules of procedure

Rule 41

The present rules of procedure may be amended with the approval of the Conference of the Parties. The Committee may submit to the Conference of the Parties for consideration and approval recommendations to amend the present rules of procedure.

XIII. Overriding authority of the Convention

Rule 42

In the event of any conflict between any provision of the present rules and any provision of the Convention, the Convention shall prevail.
